

The Business Game St.Gallen is an annual case competition organized by a group of students from the University of St.Gallen. During two-and-a-half days, 100 aspiring Master's and Bachelor's students in their final year from all across Europe compete against each other in a battle of wit and talent in five different challenges. Founded in 2013 and having been held in its fifth edition this April, the BGS is beginning to build up a reputation across Europe as a high-class event and is going into its sixth edition in 2019. The Business Game St.Gallen is a non-profit student association.

For the Organizing Team of 2018, we are looking for a motivated and dedicated student who wants to join our team from September 2018 to May 2019 as a

Case Responsible

What we offer

As a member of the Business Game St.Gallen 2019 team, you will have the following opportunities and benefits:

- Work in an entrepreneurial environment
- Extend your network of students, professors and companies
- Obtain relevant working experience
- Be part of an up-and-coming event at the University of St.Gallen
- Receive support from the previous year's organizing team if needed

Your tasks

Your involvement will include the following tasks:

- Define case strategy for 2019
- Support corporate partners in coming up with ideas for their case studies
- Provide feedback on initial ideas for the initial case ideas
- Develop, review and sign off on the case studies in cooperation with our corporate partners
- Develop a selection procedure for applicants
- Brief and coach participants during Eloquence Final

Your profile

- Student at the University of St. Gallen
- Previous experience in case solving or consulting
- Critical thinker, confidence to challenge the ideas of high-ranking company executives
- Good communicator and open-minded person
- Proficiency in English

Recruitment process

Get in touch with us! Apply until May 13th by sending your CV, together with a couple of sentences on who you are and why you want to join us, to jobs@businessgamestgallen.com.

We are looking forward to hearing from you!