

The Business Game St.Gallen is an annual case competition organized by a group of students from the University of St.Gallen. During two-and-a-half days, 100 aspiring Master's students from all across Europe compete against each other in a battle of wit and talent in five different challenges. Founded in 2013 and having been held in its fifth edition this April, the BGSG is beginning to build up a reputation across Europe as a high-class event and is going into its sixth edition in 2019. The Business Game St.Gallen is a non-profit student association.

For the Organizing Team of 2019, we are looking for a motivated and dedicated student who wants to join our team from September 2018 to May 2019 as a

Career Platform Responsible

What we offer

As a member of the Business Game St.Gallen 2019 team, you will have the following opportunities and benefits:

- Work in an entrepreneurial environment
- Extend your network of students, professors and companies
- Obtain relevant working experience
- Be part of an up-and-coming event at the University of St.Gallen

Your tasks

Your involvement will include the following tasks:

- Research and identify both national and international career platforms
- Contact companies through phone and mail, pitch them the concept of the BGSG
- Define the terms of contract for a cooperation
- Report back to the Head of Relations on relevant issues

Your profile

- Student at the University of St. Gallen
- Strong communication and writing skills
- Sense of responsibility, perseverance and proactive behavior
- Fluent in German

Recruitment process

Get in touch with us! Apply until September 30th by sending your CV, together with a couple of sentences on who you are and why you want to join us, to jobs@businessgamestgallen.com.

We are looking forward to hearing from you!